- The Protection of Personal Information Act (POPI) aims to give effect to the constitutional right to privacy by balancing the right to privacy against that of access to information. POPI requires that personal information pertaining to individuals be processed lawfully and in a reasonable manner that does not infringe on the right to privacy.
- LifeSense understands that your personal information is important to you and that you may be apprehensive about disclosing such information. Your privacy is of the utmost importance to LifeSense and LifeSense is committed to safeguarding and processing your personal information in a secure and lawful manner.
- The personal information that LifeSense will process; your first and last name, your title, date of birth, contact details (work and home), medical aid details and history, identification number, passport number, gender, medical information, occupation, email address, residential and postal address.
  - 3.1. POPI provides that the term "processing" covers any operation or activity, whether or not by automatic means, concerning personal information. Such activity may include, but is not limited to, collection, receipt, recording, organisation, storage, collation, retrieval, alteration, updating, distribution, dissemination by means of transmission, erasure or destruction of personal information.
- 4. LifeSense would also like to make sure that you understand how and for what purpose we shall process your personal information. If you for any reason think that your personal information is not being processed in a correct manner, or that your personal information is being used for a purpose other than that for which it was originally intended, you can contact our offices. You can request access to the information we hold about you at any time and can also request that we update or correct your information should you believe that such personal information is outdated.

- 5. LifeSense shall collect, hold, process, use and disclose your personal information in order to provide you with access to services and products which LifeSense provide in the ordinary course of its business. We will only process your personal information for a purpose you would reasonably expect, including but not limited to:
  - 5.1. registering you for your chronic medicine benefits with your medical scheme. LifeSense shall receive information from and share information with your treating doctor, medical scheme and dispensing pharmacy;
  - 5.2. confirming and verifying your identity as per the information received on your application form;
  - 5.3. confirming, verifying and updating your details on your LifeSense profile;
  - 5.4. corresponding with your appointed treating doctor in respect of your HIV status and medication;
  - 5.5. providing you and your treating doctor with personalised communication;
  - 5.6. providing you with advice, medication and services which suit your individual HIV healthcare needs and requirements:
  - 5.7. corresponding with pathology laboratories in respect of your blood test results;
  - 5.8. managing your HIV treatment in collaboration and consultation with your treating doctor, thereby allowing pharmacies to dispense the correct medication;
  - 5.9. administering and updating your profile on the LifeSense system in terms of your personal details, contact details, treating doctor details, medication and updated blood test results;
  - 5.10. record-keeping purposes;
  - 5.11. complying with any legal and regulatory requirements; and
  - 5.12. any other purpose for which you have provided consent.

- 6. Whenever we are required to share your personal information, LifeSense shall take all precautions to ensure that your information is transferred in a secure manner and that the third-party service provider will treat your information with the same level of protection as required by LifeSense.
  - I hereby provide authorisation and my consent to LifeSense to process and disclose my personal information provided for the purpose stated hereinabove, which purpose has been fully explained to me.
  - I understand that withholding of or failure to disclose personal information will result in LifeSense's records being incomplete and may negate any performance on the part of LifeSense.
  - Where I shared personal information of individuals other than myself with LifeSense, I hereby provide consent on their behalf to the processing and disclosure of their personal information in accordance with this consent provided and I warrant that I am authorised to give this consent on their behalf.
  - To this end, I indemnify and hold LifeSense harmless in respect of any claims by any other person, on whose behalf I have consented, against LifeSense should they claim that I was not so authorised.
  - I understand that in terms of POPI and other laws of the country, there are instances where my express consent is not necessary in order to permit the processing of personal information, which may relate to litigation or where personal information is publicly available. I will not hold LifeSense responsible for any improper or unauthorised use of personal information that is beyond LifeSense's reasonable control.
